Where:

- S/U Research work during the semester and research proposal seminar are graded either as satisfactory (S) or unsatisfactory (U). No quality points are given to the research work and thus it is not computed in the cumulative or semester grade point average.
- I All incomplete course works or assignments shall be given an "I" grade. This grade is valid only until the end of the second week of the following semester/trimester. Failure to change an "I" grade by the specified date shall result in an "F" grade.
- CN A CN grade will be assigned to a project paper for students pursuing a degree without thesis, and is usually conducted over 2 trimesters. The CN grade will be replaced with a final grade upon completion of the project paper at the end of the following trimester.
- AU An audit course is given an "AU". The student should attend lectures and may sit for all examinations prescribed by the course. No credit will be taken into account when computing the CGPA.
- N Where an actual grade is not submitted by the deadline, the course grade shall appear as an "N". Failure to submit a grade by the second week of the following semester/trimester, shall result in an "F" or "U", where appropriate.
- CT Credit transfer of a graduate - level course taken at another university/institution recognised by the University to his current graduate programme at the University.

46. Replacement of Grade

- (i) Replacement of grade is only permitted for a course (including project paper) with an F grade. The new grade will replace the F grade in the computation of his CGPA. However, the original F grade shall be retained in his transcript for the particular semester/trimester. A student is permitted to repeat a failed course once only.
- (ii) Notwithstanding Rule 46 (i), a student is permitted to repeat any course once only but the new grade shall not replace the previous grade in the computation of his CGPA. The original grade shall be retained in his transcript.

47. Re-sit of Trimester/Semester Course Examination

- (i) A student whose study status is "Probation" or "Terminated" is permitted to re-sit examination for any course with a grade lower than B obtained in the current trimester/semester. The highest overall grade he can obtain for the course after the re-sit examination is B. The better grade shall be used in the re-computation of the CGPA.
- (ii) A processing fee of RM50.00 shall be charged for each re-sit paper. The re-sit exam will be held on the second week of trimester/semester or a later date when necessary.

48. Repeat of Final Trimester

A final trimester student in a programme without thesis whose status is "Terminated" is permitted to repeat the trimester once only upon approval. The credits and grades obtained in the repeat trimester shall be used in the computation of his CGPA.

49. Review of Course Grade

A student who is not satisfied with his official examination result may file for a review of grade by submitting an application to the University not later than two (2) weeks after the announcement of results. A processing fee of RM50.00 shall be charged per review.

50. Research Progress Report

- (i) A student pursuing a degree with thesis shall submit a research progress report every semester before end of the examination week for the semester.
- (ii) The Chairman of a Supervisory Committee/Supervisor shall evaluate the report and give either an "S" or "U" grade based on the level of progress made by the student during the semester.
- (iii) Submission must be made online. Failure to do so shall result in a "U" grade.

PART 9 – EXAMINATION PROCESS

51. Course Examination

- (i) A student who has registered for courses shall be evaluated as specified in the course syllabus.
- (ii) A student who fails to attend the examination without a valid reason shall be given a zero score for that examination.
- (iii) A replacement examination shall be conducted within two (2) weeks of the official examination date if the student has valid reason for non-attendance, except if he is on medical leave or other emergencies that requires the examination to be conducted after the two-week period.
- (iv) A student who is found to have contravened any examination regulations set by the University shall be subject to the following actions:
 - (a) given a warning; or
 - (b) given the F grade for the examination; and/or
 - (c) charged with disciplinary action.
- (v) A student charged under (iv) (c) and found guilty may, at the discretion of the Disciplinary Committee, be suspended for one trimester/semester or expelled from the University, in addition to receiving the F grade for the examination.

52. Proposal Defence (Programme with Thesis)

- (i) Each student must publicly present and defend his research proposal. The student is only allowed to continue with his research to Phase IV (Thesis Preparation) on passing of the defence of his proposal.
- (ii) A student is required to take his Proposal Defence (PD) which aims to evaluate the student's knowledge in the area of study, his ability to integrate knowledge of research and theories pertaining to issues that are fundamental to the field of study and his understanding of relevant research design and methodology. For this purpose the following regulations shall apply:

- (a) A PhD student shall be permitted to take his Proposal Defence only after completion of all coursework required for the programme and within five (5) semesters or two and a half (2 ½) years of cumulative enrolment, failing which his PhD candidature may be terminated.
- (b) A MSc student shall be permitted to take his Proposal Defence only after completion of all coursework required for the programme and within three (3) semesters or one and a half (1 ½) years of cumulative enrolment, failing which his MSc candidature may be terminated.
- (c) If a student is unable to take his PD within the stipulated time due to medical reason or other emergencies, he is required to apply for an extension with relevant supporting documents for approval by the University Studies Committee.
- (d) A student is given two (2) opportunities to pass the PD. The second PD must be within 60 days after the first examination. Failure at the second attempt shall result in the termination of his candidacy unless he is recommended for reversal of study from a PhD to a Master's degree programme.

53. Thesis Submission and Final Examination in Programmes with Thesis

The final examination shall consist of an evaluation of thesis and a viva voce to determine the student's competency in the field of study.

A. Thesis Submission

(i) Notice of Submission of Thesis

A student must give notice of intention to submit his thesis at least three months in advance.

(ii) Thesis Submission for Examination

The student shall submit four or five soft-bound copies of the thesis only after the appointment of the Thesis Examination Committee has been endorsed by the University Studies Committee.

B. Appointment of Thesis Examination Committee

- (i) Members of the Thesis Examination Committee shall be appointed by the Director upon approval of the University Studies Committee on the recommendation of the relevant supervisory committee. The Thesis Examination Committee shall comprise a Chairman and two examiners for MSc or three examiners for PhD, of which at least one shall be an external examiner.

- (ii) The Chairman of the Thesis Examination Committee shall be nominated from amongst academic members of the University where the student is placed. The main roles of the Chairman are to moderate the viva voce and submit a report of the examination to the University.
- (iii) The examiners shall be appointed from amongst academic staff or researchers of appropriate seniority, and shall have the expertise and established reputation in the area of the thesis topic. The examiners must have a PhD qualification, unless with endorsement of the Senate.
- (iv) The internal examiner must be an academic staff of the University, but he must not be a member of the Supervisory Committee.
- (v) The external examiner is an independent examiner from a local or foreign university. He also must not be a member of the Supervisory Committee.
- (vi) Members of the Thesis Examination Committee shall not in any manner be personally associated to each other, to the Supervisory Committee or to the student who is being examined.

C. Viva Voce

- (i) The viva voce shall be conducted when all the examiners' reports have been received.
- (ii) The examination can only be conducted when the Chairman of the Thesis Examination Committee and at least two examiners are present. The Chairman of the Supervisory Committee and/or any member of the Supervisory Committee may attend as observers.
- (iii) A student is considered to have passed the viva voce if he has successfully defended his thesis and has satisfied the examiners of competency in his field of study.
- (iv) A student who fails to attend the viva voce without any reasonable cause shall be considered to have failed the examination.

D. Thesis Evaluation

- (i) The thesis shall be examined based on the quality of thesis presented for evaluation, and defence of the thesis during the viva voce, both of which the student must pass. The acceptance of thesis may be categorised as one of the following:

- (a) Accepted with Distinction

A thesis is accepted with distinction when all or most of the research findings have either been published or accepted for publication in citation-indexed journals, and requires minimal improvement in spelling, grammar and syntax.

(b) Accepted with Minor Modifications

A thesis is accepted with minor modifications if it requires any of the following: reformatting of chapters, revision of literature, improvement in declaration of research objectives or statements, insertion of missing references, amendment of inaccurately cited references, and other minor improvements including improvements in spelling, grammar and syntax.

(c) Accepted with Major Modifications

A thesis is accepted with major modifications if it requires any of the following but not additional experimental work or data collection: extensive revision of the entire thesis to improve quality such as major improvement in description of methodology, statistical re-analysis of research data, removal of research chapter(s), and re-discussion of results, and including improvements in spelling, grammar and syntax.

The Thesis Examination Committee may recommend that the student seek the assistance of an editing service if errors in grammar and syntax are extensive.

(ii) The Thesis Examination Committee may also recommend one of the following:

(a) Oral Re-examination (Re-viva voce)

A second and final oral re-examination (re-viva voce) is to be conducted within 12 months after the date of the first viva voce.

(b) Re-submission of Thesis

The thesis is to be re-submitted if it does not meet the scope of the degree for which it is intended, the objectives of the research are not met and/or when there are obvious flaws in the experimental design and/or methodology, and therefore, requires additional experimental work or data collection.

Re-submission of the corrected thesis must be made within a period of not more than two (2) semesters or one (1) year subject to the following conditions:

- i) Student must continue to be a registered student of the University.
- ii) The student must comply with procedures as determined from time to time by the University.
- iii) Resubmission is permitted once only.
- iv) Failure to submit within the specified time shall result in termination of candidature.

(c) Resubmission of a PhD Thesis as a Master's Thesis

The Thesis Examination Committee may recommend a PhD thesis to be accepted for the award of a Master's degree if the thesis does not meet the scope of a PhD thesis but is adequate for a Master's degree.

The following conditions must be fulfilled:

- i) All amendments recommended by the Thesis Examination Committee must be made and the thesis resubmitted to the University for examination as Master's thesis within 60 days of the viva voce.
- ii) All rules regarding thesis examination shall apply.

(d) Rejection of Thesis (Fail)

A student would be considered to have failed the examination if his thesis fails to meet the requirements of PhD or Master's academic level or found to have been plagiarised.

54. Thesis Submission Following Viva voce

- (i) A student whose thesis is accepted with modifications is given up to 60 days to submit a soft-bound copy of the amended version to the University for approval.
- (ii) A student may apply to the Director for extension of time of the final submission of his thesis. Such an application must be made through the Chairman of the Supervisory Committee. The Director may, at his discretion, extend the time for final submission of a thesis. During the extension period, the student must continue to be a registered student of the University.
- (iii) The Chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall be responsible in ensuring that all required amendments and corrections have been made in the thesis.
- (iv) The examiner(s) appointed by the Thesis Examination Committee shall verify that corrections have been made to his (their) satisfaction based on the report of the examination.
- (v) If the thesis is not amended and submitted within the stipulated time, it shall be deemed to have been rejected and the student's candidature is terminated.

55. Final Thesis Submission

- (i) Upon approval by Senate, the student shall submit the following to the University:
 - (a) three copies of the thesis in hard cover;
 - (b) a softcopy of the thesis on CD; and
 - (c) one self-passport size photograph.

PART 10 – STUDY STATUS

56. Category of Study Status

The study status of a student at any given semester/trimester can be categorised as one of the following:

(i) Good Standing

A student shall be deemed to be in Good Standing if he achieves a minimum CGPA of 3.000 (for both programmes with and without thesis) and an "S" grade for research work (for programmes with thesis).

(ii) Probation

A student shall be placed under probation if his CGPA is below 3.000 but not less than 2.500 or the student receives a "U" grade for his semester research progress.

(iii) Termination of Candidature

The candidature of a student shall be terminated for any one of the following reasons:

- (a) obtains a CGPA below 2.500 in any one semester/trimester;
- (b) receives two "U" /"NS" grades for his research progress from his supervisor during the duration of his study;
- (c) fails to attain the required minimum CGPA of 3.000 in the trimester/semester following the one in which he was placed on probation;
- (d) fails twice in any compulsory course;
- (e) exceeds duration of study;
- (f) fails his thesis examination;
- (g) does not submit the thesis within a stipulated time after the thesis examination;
- (h) violates any rules or regulations as stipulated by the University.

(iii) Completed

Student shall be deemed to have completed his study when he has fulfilled all requirements as specified by the programme.

(v) Others

- (a) Dropped: A student who fails to register or has not paid his trimester/semester fee shall be dropped from the list of active students.
- (b) Withdraw: A student is automatically withdrawn from candidature if he fails to register consecutively for two (2) semesters or three (3) trimesters.

57. Appeal against Termination of Candidature

- (i) A student whose candidature has been terminated may appeal against the decision.
- (ii) The student must comply with the following guidelines:
 - (a) files for an appeal within two (2) weeks of the date the letter of notification or examination results;
 - (b) pays all outstanding and current fees and other charges with the University;
 - (c) states clearly the reasons for the appeal; and
 - (d) provides a letter with supporting document (if applicable).
- (iii) Appeal against termination shall be considered by the University Studies Committee. The result of the appeal shall be endorsed by the Senate.

58. Consequence of Termination of Candidature

A student whose candidature has been terminated for any reason [Rule 56 (iii)] other than failure to register for more than two (2) semesters or three (3) trimesters consecutively shall no longer be eligible for readmission into the same level of graduate programme at the University.

PART 11 – GRADUATION

59. Graduation Requirements

- (i) A student is eligible for conferral of a degree only if he has achieved a minimum CGPA of 3.000, and fulfilled the requirements for courses as certified by the University, and:
 - (a) in the case of degree with thesis, passed his thesis examination;

- (b) in the case of degree without thesis, passed all compulsory courses, and project paper; and
 - (c) has settled all fees due to the University.
- (ii) A student in a degree programme with thesis must show proof of having published or submitted journal articles based on research conducted during his candidature prior to graduation. The publication requirement is as follows:

Programme	Minimum Publication Requirement
PhD	One peer-reviewed journal article published or accepted, and one peer-reviewed journal article submitted
Master	One peer-reviewed journal article submitted

- (iii) All graduating students must submit a graduation form to the University.

60. Award of Degree

The Senate shall approve the conferment of a Master's or PhD degree to a student upon recommendation by the University Studies Committee once all the requirements for graduation have been fulfilled.

PART 12 – SCHOLARLY INTEGRITY

61. Prohibition

- (i) In keeping to the tradition of scholarly pursuit, a student is forbidden from committing plagiarism, falsification and fabrication of data.
- (ii) A student shall not plagiarise any idea, writing, data or invention belonging to another person. Plagiarism includes:
 - (a) the act of taking an idea, writing, data or an invention of another person and claiming that the idea, writing, data or invention is the result of his own findings or creation; or
 - (b) an attempt to make out or the act of making out in such a way, that one is the original source or the creator of an idea, data, writing or an invention which has actually been taken from some other source.

Without prejudice to the generality of Rule 61 (ii)(b), a student is considered to have committed plagiarism when he:

- 1) publishes, with himself as the author, an abstract, article, scientific or academic paper, or book which is wholly or partly written by other person;
 - 2) incorporates himself or allows himself to be incorporated as a co-author of an abstract, article, scientific or academic paper, or book, when he has not at all made any contribution to the abstract, article, scientific or academic paper or book;
 - 3) forces another person to include his name in the list of co-researchers for a particular research project or in the list of co-authors for a publication when he has not made any contribution which may qualify him as a co-researcher or co-author;
 - 4) extracts academic data which are the results of research undertaken by other person, such as laboratory findings or field work findings or data obtained through library research, whether published or unpublished, and incorporate those data as part of his academic research without giving due acknowledgement to the actual source;
 - 5) uses research data obtained through collaborative work with some other person, whether or not that other person is a staff member or a student of the University, as part of another distinct personal academic research of his, or for a publication in his own name as sole author, without obtaining the consent of his co-researchers prior to embarking on his personal research or prior to publishing the data;
 - 6) transcribes the ideas or creations of others kept in whatever form, whether written, printed or available in electronic form, or in slide form, or in whatever form of teaching or research apparatus, or in any other form, and claims either directly or indirectly that the student is the creator of that idea or creation;
 - 7) translates the writing or creation of another person from one language to another whether wholly or partly, and subsequently presents the translation in whatever form or manner as the student's own writing or creation; or
 - 8) extracts ideas from another person's writing or creation and makes certain modifications without due reference to the original source and rearranges it in such a way that it appears as if the student is the creator of those ideas.
- (iii) A student shall not fabricate data which include invention or forgery of research data, recordings or citations, and reporting them in writing either in the thesis or publications.
- (iv) A student shall not falsify data which include alteration/modification, selective omission or misrepresentation of research data or citations, and reporting them in writing either in the thesis or publications.

62. Penalty

Where a student is found to have contravened Rule 61, disciplinary action will be taken against the student by the relevant authority of the University in accordance with the provisions approved by the Senate.
