

PROF DR ROSALAN ALI Fulbright Fellow

Ph.D. (Finance) (UCD), MBA (CMSU), BBA (WMU), and DBS (ITM).

Prof Dr Rosalan Ali is Research Professor, Putra Business School (PBS), Malaysia, since April 2022. He earned his Diploma Business Studies (DBS) from Institut Teknologi Mara, BBA (Finance) from Western Michigan University, USA, MBA (General) from Central Missouri State University, USA and PhD from University College Dublin, Ireland. Currently he is supervising 12 PBS PhD finance students and 15 MBA students since June 2022 and 3 PhD finance students, Asia-E University (AeU), Malaysia since March 2021. Prior to joining PBS, he was the finance professor of UiTM, the largest public university in Malaysia serving 32 years before retired in 2016. He was the visiting finance professor at Haworth College of Business, Michigan (2010-2011) and the Fulbright Fellow since May 2011.

He was the first Dean School of Business, University College PICOMS (2017-2019), Deputy Vice Chancellor Academic, Meritus University, Malaysia (2019-2020) and Adjunct Professor of AeU since February 2021. He was the main author for his book “Islamic Wealth Planning & Management: The Practice of Personal Finance” published by UTeM Press Malaysia (February 2023). His forthcoming book “The Global Islamic Financial Markets and Institutions: The Malaysian Testimonies” to be published by UPM Press, Malaysia, March, 2024. His research interests focus on corporate finance, risk management, derivative securities, Islamic finance and personal financial planning.

From 1996 to 2018, he was the training provider on basic financial management for ASN, PNB, MCIS, State Governments of Terengganu and Sarawak, Yayasan Pembangunan Usahawan Terengganu and Institut Penilaian Negara. Since 2023, his team is focusing on the personal financial planning for public and private sectors, including Islamic retirement planning for Muslim senior officers.