Testimony (PhD student in Putra Business School)

I consider myself fortunate to be supervised by Prof Dr Hishamuddin Md Som at the Putra Business School, UPM, Malaysia. The time I spent under his supervision were crucial in shaping my career. I have learnt a lot during my PhD. I got the freedom to work on the topics of my interest that gave me immense satisfaction. Instead of rushing the students to provide quick research results, Prof. Hishamuddin gave me sufficient time to develop all the necessary fundamentals through his guidance. We had a very friendly, comfortable, and collaborative relationship throughout my PhD studies. I admired the way he has been responding to my questions and correcting the mistakes. I will immensely cherish the memories that we had during our meetings whether online or in-person. He has been an excellent advisor and collaborator and I would wish to continue to work and interact with him on my research even after my PhD.

In my journey to complete my FYP, I have had ups and downs, but mostly down, and even thought of giving up due to health and personal issues. Luckily, Prof. Hisham, my supervisor, didn't give up on me; he kept pushing me to complete my paper, and with his charisma, knowledge, and experience, he was able to convince me and pull me up from the slump, so I was able to complete my FYP.

When I think back, I've made a great decision in choosing Prof. Hisham as my supervisor, and I feel grateful that he took me under his wing, as he is approachable and very knowledgeable in the area of my study and research. Without proper guidance and mentoring, I've never been able to complete my paper.
